

OPEN CALL 2024-2025 FOR SCHOLARSHIPS OF THE ERASMUS MUNDUS JOINT MASTER RESILIENCE IN EDUCATIONAL CONTEXTS

This is an open call for applications for scholarships for the second cohort of Erasmus Mundus Joint Master in Resilience in Educational Contexts (EMJM FLOURISH).

The application period is now open until 31st December 2023 at 12:00 midnight Central European Time (CET) for interested applicants from Greece, European countries, or any other eligible country around the world.

The Erasmus Mundus Joint Master in Resilience in Educational Contexts -EMJM FLOURISH is a two-years' full-time programme that seeks to address the need to provide a meaningful, relevant and balanced education for children growing up in adverse and marginalized circumstances, by focusing on their strengths and building their assets within protective contexts. It aims to build the capacity of educators and practitioners in creating resilience enhancing contexts which equip children and young people with the necessary resources and competencies to deal effectively with the challenges in their education and development.

The EMJM Resilience in Educational Contexts is offered by the University of Malta (leading partner), the University of Crete, Greece; the University of Lisbon, Portugal, and Stefan Cel Mare University, Suceava, Romania. The Programme is supported by six other associated partners, namely Dalhousie University, Canada; University of Rijeka, Croatia; University of Pretoria, South Africa, Orebro University, Sweden; University of Sao Paulo, Brazil, and the European School Psychology Training Centre.

All interested candidates can find all necessary information at the University of Malta (Coordinator) and the program's website www.flourishproject.mt. Eligible candidates from any country are invited to apply by submitting their application and all the required documents in the online application form. The application form is for both Scholarship and self-funding candidates, but applicants for EM Scholarships need to indicate on the application and the motivation letter they are applying for a Scholarship. Self-funding candidates can apply until June 28th, 2024.

Please complete the online application form and upload all required scanned attachments (in pdf format) on the online application page (see Required Documents). Please note that you do not need to complete the whole application form at once. You can save it any time and finish it later during the period of application. If you encounter problems with uploading your documents with the application form, you can send the documents to intadmissions@um.edu.mt following the submission of your application.

More information can be provided by the Scientific Coordinator of the Erasmus Mundus FLOURISH for the University of Crete, Greece, Professor Matsopoulos who can be reached at matsopoulos.global@gmail.com