

Dear representative of the University,

My name is Jekaterina and I am writing to you on behalf of Latvian Model United Nations (LVMUN) organizing team. I would like to ask you to share the information among students about youth opportunities. LVMUN is a conference that gathers young and curious minds from around the globe to learn about diplomacy and negotiations together through the simulation of the work of different committees of the UN.

LVMUN VII, the seventh edition of the conference that will take place on November 30th -December 2nd in Stockholm School of Economics in Riga, Latvia, with five committees working on resolutions : United Nations Security Council, Crisis, UNDP, Economic and Social Council and Council of Europe. We have made sure that the topics of the conference cover as many issues as possible, such as the handling of terrorism related news in media, reduction of migrant vulnerability, protection of European values, etc., and have already gathered a team of dedicated directors from around Europe to bring the best experience to delegates. You can find more details about committees, topics and directors on our webpage (lvmun.org).

So far, we have managed to bring people together from more than 35 countries all over the world, including the USA, Mexico, Brazil, South Africa, India, Hong Kong and let them discuss and resolve important issues, learn how to reach an unanimous decision overcoming the differences in the nations' views.

We would like to invite students to apply to the seventh edition of LVMUN by filling in the delegate's application. For more information please visit: lvmun.org and <https://www.facebook.com/events/157428535195266/>

Sincerely,
