

Dear Sir or Madam,

residing at "House-of-Nations" students are offered inclusive accommodation whilst in Berlin. Berlin welcomes numerous students from around the world every year as it is one of the most popular student cities in Europe. In order to ensure optimal well-being in the capital, the Bürgermeister-Reuter-Stiftung offers a selection of accommodation with apartments and rooms under the name "House-of-Nations" (<https://www.house-of-nations.de/>) which consists of 7 residential buildings. On offer is a variety of services including free Wi-Fi and a concierge service.

Students in Berlin would be most welcome to our accommodation and if interested, further information will be sent.

We look forward to a positive response and feedback.

Sincerely yours

Izabela Ercegovic Gak
