

Internship at AHV Associates – Job Spec

AHV Associates (www.ahvassociates.com) is a London-based boutique investment bank founded in 2001. We provide advice on M&A and capital raising to privately owned companies, with a focus on the Hospitality industry.

We are seeking for an Erasmus placement intern who has obtained a good understanding of M&A and capital raising processes, has completed relevant modules for this position such as accounting and company valuation methodologies, and has intermediate skills in Microsoft Excel and Powerpoint.

Advanced English skills is prerequisite for this position. Applicants must have obtained a relevant English language qualification (Please include your English qualification(s) in your CV).

AHV is offering a compensation package that would support the intern on her/his daily expenses and on-the-job training to develop the required skills for a career in Corporate Finance.

If interested in our intern position, please send your CV to Vasilis Makamitzoglou at vmakamitzoglou@ahvassociates.com and cc tpapavramidis@ahvassociates.com and lferri@ahvassociates.com