

The University of Economics and Innovation (WSEI) in Lublin is looking for research teams members.

Initially defined project's research areas:

- > Gender gap puzzle in debt literacy. Why women are less debt literate than men?
- > From debt literacy to financial market participation or conversely? The causality dilemma.
- > Predatory lending and public attitudes towards lending entities. Consequences for prospects before lending industry.
- > How to avoid debt fragility. Does it make sense to apply financial training to children?

The project implementation is scheduled for the period from the 1st of April 2017 till the 30th of September 2018.

Profiles of the candidates for the research team members:

Profile no 1

A PhD student at the beginning of their research career under the age of 30. Research domain: statistics, econometrics, sociology, psychology, informatics, economy, management. Fluency in English is required.

Profile no 2

An academic working in the field of social science, in particular sociology and psychology, holding at least a PhD degree and having documented research achievements. Fluency in English is required.

Profile no 3

An academic working in the field of technical science, in particular informatics, holding at least an MSc degree and having documented research achievements. Fluency in English is required.

Profile no 4

An academic working in the field of economic sciences, in particular statistics and econometrics and other quantitative methods, holding at least an MSc degree and having documented research achievements. Fluency in English is required.

Interested candidates should provide:

- > CV,
- > documented research achievements,
- > motivation letter stating the field of activity and a chosen candidate profile.

We offer:

- › an opportunity to participate in the implementation of the project co-financed by the Polish Ministry of Science and Higher Education,
- › an opportunity to be a part of the international and interdisciplinary research team,
- › covering the costs resulting from collection of empirical data,
- › an opportunity to participate in preparation of a publication in English,
- › covering the costs resulting from the proofreading of the publication text and its adjustment to the publication standards,
- › covering the costs resulting from publication fees and reviews,
- › submitting the publication to the ISI Master Journal List (with impact factor).

Candidates should contact:

1. The Project Manager, PhD Wiktor Cwynar wiktor.cwynar@wsei.lublin.pl or
2. The WSEI secretariat in Lublin – Wyższa Szkoła Ekonomii i Innowacji, ul. Projektowa 4, 20-209 Lublin, pok. 100

Deadline for submission: 24th of February

The research will be conducted as a part of the project:

„Debt watch – a pilot project, based on the focused, socially and economically relevant research domain (debt literacy), addressing the creation of a set of solutions aimed at broadening the scope and raising the quality and standards of research within social science and humanities in the area of economy and management conducted at the Faculty of Economics and Administration at the University of Economics and Innovation in Lublin”.